

Dear Honorable Judge Glenn,

I am a Celsius creditor growing increasingly concerned that I will not see any distributions due to me. I filed a support ticket with Stretto on Feb 20th and only received their standard auto-reply back, my further email communications have not been replied to.

As you can see below, my claim was correctly recorded in the initial filings, but I have not received any communication or emails containing the claim codes or instructions to claim these assets. I have diligently checked my email inbox, including spam and junk folders, but I have not found any correspondence related to these claim codes. I am receiving generic notifications from Stretto about the case and other communications not related to my claim, so I know my email is working for them. But nothing related to my claim so far.

If there are any additional steps or procedures that I need to follow to resolve this matter, please kindly inform me, and I will promptly comply with any requirements. Thank you for your attention to this matter. I appreciate your assistance in ensuring that all creditors, including myself, receive fair treatment and access to their rightful assets in this bankruptcy case.

Sincerely,

Logan Roberts
